Exploring with a purpose!

Step One: Read the text above and discuss what you understood with your team.

Step Two: Find information about the various adventurers, their missions and their reasons for travelling the world over the centuries (you may go on the Internet to find further information about them)

Step Three: Be ready to report what you've found to the class!
Step one: Read the text above and discuss what you understood with your team.

Step Two: Find information about the adventurers mentioned in the text, their missions and their reasons for travelling the world over the centuries (you may go on the internet to find further information about the author of the text, Joseph Conrad)

Step Three: Be ready to report what you’ve found to the class!
Exploring with a purpose!

Team 3

Did you know?

On 31 December 1600, Queen Elizabeth I granted over 200 English merchants a charter which allowed them to trade in the East Indies. The signing of the East India Company’s charter marked the beginning of one of the most powerful trading companies, turning Great Britain into a global superpower. The East India Company was so powerful that it had an army of more than 200,000 men. It also made laws and raised taxes.

Step One: Read the text above and listen to the audio document "The East India Company" (on msbreuiln.weebly.com)

Step Two: Find information about the various adventurers mentioned, their missions and their reasons for travelling.

Step Three: Be ready to report what you’ve found to the class!
Step one: Read the text above and discuss what you understood with your team.

Step Two: Find information about the various adventurers mentioned in the texts, their missions and their reasons for travelling the world.

Step Three: Be ready to report what you've found to the class!